This is pretty unapproachable in its current form. It needs a lot of work to make it understandable. Let me touch base with Jeff and OM to see what we can do.

Danny,

Here is a very drafty diagram of the mine to help explain what happened at the mine.

The SME hasn't provided feedback yet on accuracy. Once he sends that, do you think your team could improve this to use on the site and share with media?

Hi, Steve.

Joyce sent me this draft diagram for David's presentation this afternoon. Per Joyce's instructions, we are not going to include it unless we have your approval. Please let me know if you approve or if you have any edits. EPA HQ is reviewing concurrently.

Thanks!
